

MĀORI CAUCUS BIENNIAL WĀNANGA

Tauwhare Marae
780 Tauwhare Rd
Pukemoremore, Waikato

8th - 10th November 2023

Te Ao Māramatanga College of Mental Health Nurses

brings to you our eighth biennial wānanga to be held in Waikato.

Our theme this year is: He waka eke noa – We are all in this together

This wānanga is for all Māori nurses. Māori nursing students, Māori health support workers, cultural clinicians, lived experience, kaumātua, managers, educators, and researchers.

Registrations are now open:

- Non - member registration - $150
- Membership registration - $75.00
- Tauira/Consumer Registration - $25.00
- Kaumātua registration - complimentary

Register here: TAM 2023 Wānanga registration link

Registration includes all meals provided, Whetū Kanapa awards evening, and marae accommodation. As marae accommodation is limited it will be on first basis booking

Come and hear our dynamic speakers and more:

- Riana Manuel – RN, Chief Executive Te Aka Whai Ora
- Ramai Haeata – RN, Ministry of Health Clinical Principal Advisor Nursing
- Dr Reena Kainamu – RN, Director Āniwaniwa Ltd t/a Hua Kōrero, independent researcher & writer
- Nadine Gray – RN, Chief Nurse Te Aka Whai Ora
- Rikki Solomon - Tohunga, Turuki Health Care
- Te Kete Pounamu – Lived Experience
- Dr Andre McLachlan – Clinical Māori Psychologist, Education & Training Te Rau Ora
- Anthony Hemopo & Waimarama Durie - Ara Poutama Aotearoa Department of Corrections

To finish off our wananga on Friday morning we have a Hauora Leadership panel followed by lunch

ARA POUTAMA AOTEAROA
DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS

Te Aka Whai Ora
Māori Health Authority

