About the Event

Event Date: 19th- 20th November 2026

Event Location: The Pā, University of Waikato - Te Whare Wānanga o Waikato Hamilton, NZ

Join us in Kirikiriroa, Hamilton for two inspiring days dedicated to the future of mental health, addiction and disability nursing in Aotearoa.

The Te Ao Māramatanga – NZCMHN 9th International Conference brings together nurses, leaders, researchers, and partners from across the motu for connection, learning, and impactful kōrero.

This years theme, Ko nga nehi te pumanawa mo te whānau – Whānau in the Hearts and Minds of Nurses, places whānau-centred practice at the heart of every conversation – honouring whaiora, whānau, communities, culture, and identity as essential to wellbeing.

Why Sponsor?

Sponsoring the 9th International Conference of Te Ao Māramatanga – New Zealand College of Mental Health Nurses connects your organisation with a highly engaged mental health, addiction, and disability nursing workforce from across Aotearoa New Zealand.

With 300+ delegates expected, the conference brings together frontline nurses, leaders, educators, students, and sector partners for two days of learning and connection. The 2026 theme, Ko ngā nehi te pumanawa mō te whānau – Whānau in the Hearts and Minds of Nurses, places whānau-centred, culturally responsive practice at the core of care.

Sponsorship offers meaningful visibility in a trusted professional setting and demonstrates your organisation's commitment to workforce wellbeing, equity, and improved outcomes for whaiora, whānau, and communities.
